DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 5 - 10 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Note: Claims 2 – 4, 11 – 37 were withdrawn by applicant.

Claim Objections

2. Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informalities:

Line 3: "a first and second cylindrical guide roll ..."

Should be: "a first and second cylindrical guide rolls...".

Appropriate correction is required..

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1, 5 – 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Jury (4,257,251).

With respect to claim 1: Jury discloses: (Abstract, Figs. 1 – 2): An apparatus for plastically deforming a work piece (50) comprising a sheet, the apparatus comprising:

a first and a second cylindrical guide rolls (22, 23) rotatable in a first direction, each of said cylindrical guide rolls having an outer circumference;

a bendable strip (47) having a portion of at least one surface in communication with a portion of the outer circumference of each of the first and second cylindrical guide rolls (22, 23), said bendable strip being capable of motion around the first and second cylindrical guide rolls in the first direction and exerting a force upon the work piece (50), a first cylindrical feeding roll (31) rotatable in a second direction opposite to the first direction, said first cylindrical feeding roll having an outer circumference, a plastic deformation passage ((Fig. 1)having a first surface and a second surface, at least a portion of the first surface being defined by a portion of the bendable strip (47), and at least a portion of the second surface being defined by the outer circumference of the first cylindrical feeding roll (31), the plastic deformation passage extending from the first cylindrical guide roll (22) to the second cylindrical guide roll (23), wherein one or both of the bendable strip (47) and the cylindrical feeding roll (31), when in motion, propel the work piece (50) through the plastic deformation passage wherein the work piece (50) is plastically deformed.

Art Unit: 3663

While patent drawings are not drawn to scale, relationships clearly shown in the drawings of a reference patent cannot be disregarded in determining the patentability of claims. See In re Mraz, 59 CCPA 866, 455 F.2d 1069, 173 USPQ 25 (1972).

With respect to claim 5: Jury further discloses: (Abstract, Figs. 1 – 2): a plastic deformation passage wherein another portion of the first surface of the plastic deformation passage is defined by a die (48 & 51).

With respect to claim 6: Jury further discloses: (Abstract, Figs. 1 – 2): the die(48 & 51) compresses a deformable work piece (50) between itself and the feeding roll (31).

With respect to claim 7: Jury further discloses: (Abstract, Figs. 1 – 2): wherein the plastic deformation passage further comprises a channel (Fig. 1) defined by an upper and lower die (48 & 51), said upper die (48) being in communication with a portion of the bendable strip (47) and said lower die (51) being in communication with the outer circumference of the feeding roll (31).

Art Unit: 3663

With respect to claim 8: Jury further discloses: (Abstract, Figs. 1 – 2): wherein a single one-piece die (48 & 51) comprises the upper (48) and lower (51) die.

With respect to claim 9: Jury further discloses: (Abstract, Figs. 1 – 2): wherein the upper die (48) is in communication with a portion of the bendable strip that is in communication with one of the cylindrical guide rolls (22, 23).

With respect to claim 10: Jury further discloses: (Abstract, Figs. 1 – 2): wherein the channel is an angled channel (49, Fig. 2).

5. The statements of intended use or field of use, e.g., “for plastically deforming, capable of, etc...” clauses are essentially method limitations or statements or intended or desired use. Thus, these claims as well as other statements of intended use do not serve to patentably distinguish the claimed structure over that of the reference. See In re Pearson, 181 USPQ 641; In re Yanush, 177 USPQ 705; In re Finsterwalder, 168 USPQ 530; In re Casey, 512 USPQ 235; In re Otto, 136 USPQ 458; Ex parte Masham, 2 USPQ 2nd 1647.

See MPEP § 2114 which states:

A claim containing a “recitation with respect to the manner in which a claimed apparatus is intended to be employed does not differentiate the claimed apparatus from the prior art apparatus” if the prior art apparatus teaches all the structural limitations of the claim. Ex parte Masham, 2 USPQ 2nd 1647

Claims directed to apparatus must be distinguished from the prior art in terms of structure rather than functions. In re Danly, 120 USPQ 528, 531.

Apparatus claims cover what a device is not what a device does. Hewlett-Packard Co. v. Bausch & Lomb Inc., 15 USPQ2d 1525, 1528.

As set forth in MPEP § 2115, a recitation in a claim to the material or article worked upon does not serve to limit an apparatus claim.
